Published Every Week Afternoon.
 Subscriptions: One Year, $3; One Month, 25 cts; Single Copy, 1 cent.
 Members of the Publishers' Press—The latest telegraphic news from all parts of the world is received by the Daily Times up to the hour of going to press.

Frank E. Longley, Publisher.

Entered at the Postoffice at Barre as Second Class Matter.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 14, 1906.

The average daily circulation of the Barre Daily Times for the week ending Saturday was

4,155 copies, the largest paid circulation of any daily paper in this section.

If, like wine, city reports improve with age, then the Barre city report of 1900 must have become well mellowed after being held up for five years.

The two New York newspapers, the American and the Journal, which were prodding District Attorney Jerome for his inactivity, ought to be satisfied now with each one sued for $100,000 by the gentleman. There's activity enough for them.

Sixteen men who took out first naturalization papers in Montpelier the other evening might be accused also of having taken the whole alphabet. Their names were: Narciso Lambana, Carlos Martinez and Celestino Concha of Spain; Gian Dornjevic of Austria; Catella Gar-tano, Tito Gionti, Giuseppe Scanzaroli, Giovanni Saino, Mantoni Oreste, Emilio Monetti, Giacomo Bernardoni, Giovanni Bostai, Sisti Fausto, Paolo Cristofaletti, Calco Aritide and Caesar Comi of Italy.
 While not so easily pronounced as Smith, Jones, Green or Brown, the census men will find that they will become familiar with practice.

Although it is a little early for county politics, there is occasionally heard talk of prospective candidates. Sheriff Tracey, Probate Judge Carleton and Side Judge Wells will be candidates for re-election, it is understood, but for the office of state's attorney and senators new men will be chosen. State's Attorney Jackson has made an enviable record in the office and could, doubtless, have a renomination without much opposition, but he has stated he would not be a candidate for the position again, and this has started the gossip of other candidates. There are said to be several in Barre looking toward a nomination, and in Montpelier Benj. Gates is mentioned. Barre is entitled to a senator this year, and there will doubtless be several candidates before the city caucuses.
 In Waterbury they are talking Eugene Moody for senator.

WITH APOLOGUES TO EUGENE FIELD.

The local Central Vermont station will soon be the pride of the line. The latest additions are new brass door handles on the doors of the waiting room—Montpelier news item.

Let us see; are there any handles to the dry goods box on Depot Square in Barre? Yes, there are handles. They are not brass handles, however. They are the kind of handles which fit the building, we admit. Is the Central Vermont depot in Barre "the pride of the line"? No, the person who considered that the Central Vermont station in Barre is the pride of the line would be accused of failing eyesight or the crassest ignorance. Will the Central Vermont station in Barre ever be the pride of the line? We do not know.
 Perhaps the Central Vermont railroad, headquarters St. Albans, Vt., might be able to tell you. At any rate, we hope

A GRADUATION DAY REFORM.

Within a few months a large number of young ladies and young men will mount the platform and receive their diplomas as a mark of the completion of courses of study in the high schools, and already newspapers, school officials and others are sounding a note of warning to prevent the rush among the fathers and mothers to make their daughters the "best dressed" among the girl graduates. Many fathers and mothers who take pride in the success of their daughters, who delight in the fact that they have advanced far enough up the educational hill to earn certificates of graduation, take the opportunity to partially reward them by making them as gorgeous as possible on the day of triumph. That is, those parents who have the means to do it. But there are other pupils in our public high schools whose parents have not the money to spend an extravagance of dress; they therefore cannot be decked out in the most expensive fabrics. Therein lies the reason for the present attempt at reform in the matter of graduation day gowns.
 If the mothers and fathers could be brought to realize that the public knows nothing as to the cost of the graduation gowns and cares as little, and if they knew the spirit of envy which is apt to be stirred up in the hearts of those girls of poorer parents who cannot have expensive gowns they would perhaps desist in the practice of decking out their daughters with the fineries which are beyond the poor man's pocket book. It has come to our notice that the girls of one senior class at least have voted to dress themselves in a cheap but pretty material, thereby doing away with the likelihood of bitter spirit which might disturb the harmony of graduation and make enemies at the time lasting friendships should be formed. There is a good example for other high school girls.
 They should realize that graduation day is not for a display of the dressmaker's art, but the display of brains or the product of brains.

JINGLES AND JESTS.

All Talk.

Miss Spruce—They say that French punch ought not to be allowed on the stage.
 Mrs. Bruce—It isn't so at all. We went to see it last night and were awfully disappointed; there wasn't anything shocking in it at all!—Detroit Free Press.

Figuring It Out.

"Is it true that Toner got $500 for his last picture?"
 "No; he asked $500, but I think he got about $200, because he told me he would not take less than $350."—Brooklyn Life.

SYSTEMATIC SAVING.

An early start and a definite plan help to assure success to the young person starting out in life. It isn't necessary to be penurious nor is it wise to be extravagant. The best way to acquire a competence is to open a savings account with this Bank. Deposit as much as you can each pay day—and stick to it. DO IT NOW. A dollar opens an account.

OBSERVED LADIES' NIGHT.

Randolph University Club Had a Pleasant Affair.

Randolph, March 13.—The event of the season in the social line took place Monday evening in Edson's hall, when the members of the University club observed ladies' night. From 7:30 to 8 a formal reception was held. President E. W. Tewksbury and wife, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Johnson, with Col. Frank L. Greene of St. Albans, who was the speaker of the evening, received the guests, numbering about 100. Following the reception an address of welcome was given by President E. W. Tewks-bury. Music was furnished by a male quartette composed of Dr. W. M. Kelly, Mark A. Davis, A. M. Vaughan and A.
 H. Beedle. Colonel Greene entertained the guests for more than an hour on the subject, "Italy." He told of his travels and experiences in such a pleasing and original way, that he has been unanimously voted by his hearers as the best lecturer the town has seen for several years, and arrangements are now being made for his appearance in the entertainment course next season. The literary programme closed with a selection by the quartette. Light refreshments were served and the guests left for their respective homes, having spent a most delightful evening.

COAL UP 50C IN NEW YORK.

Dealers Raise Price in Anticipation of Strike.

New York, March 14.—The selling agents in this city of the independent anthracite coal operators yesterday raised the price of steam coal 50 cents a ton—from $4.50 to $5. As similar action was taken just before the declaration of the last big strike, this increase is viewed in business circles as indicating a conviction that a new contest between capital and labor is inevitable.
 The importance of the move is regarded as undeniable, inasmuch as many thousands of tons must be consumed in the near future by manufacturers and others. In fact, the belief reflected in the action of the selling agents is shared generally in financial circles, and the Pennsylvania, New York Central, and other leading railroads are known to be purchasing all the coal they can get hold of.

CHURCH MADE A PORT.

French at Privas Will Resist Inventory With Rifles.

Privas, France, March 14.—The population of the town of Coucouron, about 50 miles from here, is determined to resist the taking of the inventory of the church under the church and state separation law. The doors are heavily barricaded. A hundred men, armed with rifles and provisioned for a long siege are installed inside the building.

MOTHER AND CHILD.

Let the mother take Scott's Emulsion for the two; it never fails to benefit them both. One can eat for two, but nourishing two is a different thing. It calls for a degree of internal strength that the average woman lacks. People of luxury are not very strong by habit; overworked people are weak in some functions from exhaustion or their surroundings. Scott's Emulsion can be depended upon to overcome such conditions. It is a wonderful food for a mother and child.

BERKSHIRE MAN INDICTED.

Sanford W. Armstrong Charged With Making False Invoice.

Burlington, March 14.—Sanford W.
 Armstrong of Berkshire was brought to Burlington yesterday by Deputy United States Marshal Thomas Reeves under arrest upon an indictment found against him by the United States grand jury in Burlington two weeks ago. Armstrong was taken before George E. Johnson, clerk of the United States courts who admitted him to bail of $600 demanded which sum was furnished.
 Armstrong is indicted for making false invoice of two sap evaporators, which he brought to Vermont from Canada January 16, by entering them at a price under their real valuation.

SOUTH RANDOLPH.

Mrs. E. D. Camp and son, Barton, spent last Thursday with her daughter, Mrs. W. M. Boyd.

Willie Lane of Royalton visited his sister, Mrs. Don Gifford, last week.

Victor Spear tested Earl Rifford's cows last week, finding them all sound.

Miss Mary Camp spent Friday with her brother, E. D. Camp and family.

S. B. Loomis is here for the summer to be spent with his son, Derwood Loomis.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Butterick Patterns at The Vaughan Store!

It is with pleasure that I inform the ladies of this locality that I have been granted the agency for the celebrated Butterick Patterns and Publications. My stock is entirely new, and each month the latest creations in styles will be received. I have carefully investigated the Pattern question and find that such firms as John Wanamaker, Marshall Field & Co., Jordan Marsh Co., in fact the leading merchants of every city endeavor always to secure a Butterick Agency. It is also the purpose of the Butterick Company to place their goods in the leading stores everywhere.

From time to time cheap, unreliable Patterns make their appearance on the market. In a BUTTERICK Pattern you can depend upon the stylishness and accuracy. Before a Butterick Pattern is placed on sale; a cloth garment is made up and fitted to a living model—so Do Not Risk Cutting Your Cloth from Patterns Which You Have to Prove Yourself.

A Butterick Pattern is GUARANTEED, so if you buy an imitation and get a poor fit, or spoil your cloth, you will know better next time.

JUST RECEIVED—Our first shipment of Spring Jackets and Rain Coats. Will be pleased to show them to you.

As Time Goes On Interest Grows

Some Sales are one day's affairs, but in this Sale each day grows better. Now if you have been a purchaser you know why.
 If you haven't, think it over. To say the least it is not because customers have been disappointed, and we hardly think it necessary to tell you it's because they have been more than pleased.
 Anyhow, any day since the Sale began we haven't begun to be able to serve the people that have wanted admittance to our store and any woman who has her own interest at heart, whether she lives near or far, will be here some day before the Sale ends.

To the Public in General of Barre!
